Over fifty PCC students participated in summer youth camps or summer mission trips to Dallas this year. Here is what some had to say:

"I loved my summer camp/ mission trip experience because...."

"...this is the one place in the world that I can really connect with God and grow closer to Him. Also, I can help other people grow closer to Him."
~ Sarah Lindsey, 9th grade

"...it really gave me the opportunity to grow spiritually. The trips are what you make of them, and this one really helped me learn to accept that keeping my relationship with Christ personal is my priority and responsibility now." ~ Sami Hughes, 2011 graduate

"The middle school Quest camp was blessed to have many volunteers including many of our own high school students as leaders. 14 baptisms were performed. High school camp took place on the University of North Texas campus where our students heard amazing worship and biblical teaching. Our middle school and high school students took separate mission trips each where they served the poverty stricken South Dallas neighborhoods. It was a summer of spiritual growth for our students.

INTERIM DIRECTOR OF STUDENT MINISTRY

Nicole White named as Interim Director of Student Ministry - Hello church family! I am so excited to step into the role of Interim Director of Student Ministry. Through my many years of teaching in public school and work as a youth leader, I bring a realistic and enthusiastic understanding of that wonderful creature that we call "teenager". My top two qualifications? Laughter and a desire to seek God. Join me in praying continually for the excellent student ministry here at PCC. Pray for our students, for our pastor and elders as they seek to fill the permanent position, and for that yet unnamed future Pastor to Students. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me at nicolewhite@pc-church.org, or call me at 512-740-9190

World Missions

The Great Commission

“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” Amen.

The Great Commission was the theme of Atila and Roxanne Yatman’s Mission trip to Turkey, bringing the lost to an understanding of who Jesus is and accepting Him. We worked to bring wandering believers back to God, rekindle those who lost their fire and baptize new believers. We spent hours planting the seed in Muslims who had questions about our faith and showed through our actions the love of Jesus. We drove a bus of non-believers to church every Sunday because they wanted to experience what makes us so happy. We were able to start a new network of churches & home groups paving the way for our permanent future return to Turkey. We were blessed to help put the finishing touches on a church in a hotel that is being used as a sanctuary for the guests. It is HUGE for this hotel in an all Muslim village to open a church for fear of scaring away guests, but the hotel manager and his family are Turkish believers and they have faith that God will bring them customers.

Three weeks ago I returned from an eight week Mission trip to Nepal. My image of the world has not radically changed nor has any particular veil been pulled back to let me see something previously unknown. Rather, my image of the world is now clearer, specifically with regard to Nepal. I experienced a great many things, some good, others not so good. I learned from these experiences, about myself, faith, religion, people, and about God. About myself I learned that a slower pace of life, or at least less possibilities for distraction, greatly enhance and increase my time in God’s word and my time spent on scripture memorization. I saw, encouraged, and was encouraged by the believers there. Most of whom wanted so badly to learn but had so few to learn from. I saw old Buddhists and Hindus who had prayed all their life and never had a prayer answered but refused to seek out Christ because their fathers did not. I saw rain almost every day, real rain, not a light sprinkle. But it was perhaps the driest place I’ve ever been. And I saw God work in ways that I never have seen before. I saw him use our team, our translator, guide, my teammate, and I, to prop up believers who were struggling, to share the truth with many, most of whom cared to learn more. Our guide and translator displayed a love for their people that I have never seen before. Their love was a passionate, sad love that compelled them to go out and make themselves available to be God’s instruments for the salvation of their people group. I hope to emulate this love here among my friends and those in my community. Thank you to all who supported me financially and in prayer.

Grand opening celebration of the church

One of the highlights of our trip was standing beside PCC’s Turkish Missionary, Jordan and his family in doing the will of God. It was great to fellowship, pray and support Jordan.

PCC's PRAYER LABYRINTH

We can pray to God anywhere and anytime, but it's helpful to have a specific place for prayer and meditation. That is the purpose of a prayer labyrinth. It is not a maze to get lost in, but rather it is one continuous path for reflection and seeking God. Two members of Boy Scout Troop 4277 who are also members of PCC, Jesse Grant and Ethan Honeycutt, led the construction of a prayer labyrinth on the east side of the church for their Eagle Scout projects. Local businesses including the Home Depots in Pflugerville, north Austin, and Round Rock, the Hutto Lowes, Gaddy's Feed & Hardware, Whittlesey Landscape Supplies, Clean Scapes Landscaping, the Pflugerville HEB, Wholesale Decking Supply, Little Caesar's Pizza in Pflugerville, Shipley Donuts in Pflugerville, the Newton Nursery in Austin, and Alamo Concrete donated money and supplies to help make the project possible. Dozens of volunteers from Troop 4277 and PCC worked hard to bring the labyrinth to fruition, putting in over 450 volunteer hours. Visit this beautiful addition to the PCC property and walk and pray the labyrinth.

Come enjoy dinner while we celebrate communion and fellowship together.

FAITH IN ACTION

Angel Tree Coordinator Needed - If you are interested contact Debbie Trylko at dptrylko@suddenlink.net or 680-4628. Angel Tree Christmas works by connecting parents in prison with their children through the delivery of Christmas gifts. Every Christmas, PCC participates to help brighten the lives of countless children by purchasing, wrapping and delivering gifts on behalf of their incarcerated parent—not only delivering a message of love from parent to child, but also the true meaning of Christmas—the good news of Jesus Christ.

Honor God by serving Him in your church and community

Faith in Action Ministry is excited to announce that Pflugerville Community Church members have a direct way to access scheduled PCC volunteer opportunities with local organizations that PCC supports. In addition to these scheduled events we want to encourage you to contact our PCC representatives if you would like to find out other opportunities to volunteer on a regular basis. Contact Debbie Trylko for a list of representatives dptrylko@suddenlink.net.
